TERMS AND CONDITIONS for USE OF PUBLIC INTERNET STATION BY INDIVIDUALS 15 AND UNDER

The Library provides public access to the Internet, unfiltered, to permit:

- a) access to information and resources for individual enrichment, self-education, culture and recreation
- b) enhanced local and global communications.

The Library acknowledges that:

- a) information may be inaccurate, out-of-date or unavailable at times therefore users are expected to evaluate the validity of all information accessed on the Internet
- b) some information or images may be controversial, offensive or inappropriate for children therefore the parent/legal guardian is expected to provide guidance to their children in the use of the Internet. Any restriction of a child's access to the Internet is the responsibility of the parent/legal guardian.

All individuals using the Internet resources at the Selwyn Public Library must agree to abide by the rules and acceptable use policy adopted by the Selwyn Public Library Board. Failure to do so will result in the removal of an individual's right to use the Internet computer at the library.
